Term 1

WEEK 1

SPEAKING CLEARLY AND CONFIDENTLY

What Is Clear Speech?

Clear speech means saying words so that everyone can understand you.

A good speaker:

Speaks slowly.

Pronounces words correctly.

Speaks loudly enough to be heard.

Looks at the listener.

Smiles and speaks politely.

Tips for Speaking Confidently

✓ Stand tall.

✓ Smile.

✓ Speak one word at a time.

✓ Do not rush.

✓ Listen before you speak.

Fun Speech Game (Pass the Microphone)

(Use a toy microphone, a paper microphone, or any classroom object.)

Each pupil says:

"My name is _____."

"My favourite colour is _____."

"My favourite fruit is _____."

The class claps after each presentation.

Story Time

Sarah Speaks with Confidence

Sarah loved reading aloud.

At first, she spoke very quietly.

Her teacher said,

"Stand tall, smile, and speak clearly."

Sarah practiced every day.

Soon, everyone could hear her clearly.

She became confident and enjoyed speaking in class.

Role Play

Work with a partner.

One pupil is the teacher.

The other pupil is new to the class.

Introduce yourselves politely.

Remember to smile and make eye contact.

CLASS EXERCISE

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

A good speaker should:

- ☐ Shout. ☐ Speak clearly. ☐ Turn away from the listener.

When speaking, we should:

- ☐ Smile. ☐ Cover our mouth. ☐ Look at the floor.

Which word is polite?

☐ Please

☐ Push

☐ Fight

B. Complete the Sentences.

My name is _____.

I am in _____.

I speak _____.

I always say _____ when someone helps me.

C. Read Aloud

Good morning.

My name is _____.

I am in Grade Two.

Thank you.

Have a nice day.

HOMEWORK

Stand in front of a mirror and introduce yourself three times.

Greet three people politely at home.

Read today's sentences aloud to a family member.

Practice smiling while you speak.

WEEK 2

THE ENGLISH ALPHABET AND LETTER SOUNDS

The English alphabet has 26 letters.

Fun Speech Game (Alphabet Treasure Hunt)

The teacher says a letter.

Find an object in the classroom that begins with that letter.

Example:

Teacher: B

Children: Book! Bag!

Teacher: C

Children: Chair!

Story Time

The Alphabet Parade

The children in Grade Two had an Alphabet Parade.

Ada carried an Apple.

Bayo held a Ball.

Chioma hugged a Cat.

David walked with a toy Dog.

Each child proudly said the letter and sound of the object they carried.

Everyone clapped because they spoke clearly.

Role Play

Work with a partner.

Choose an alphabet picture.

Say:

"This is a _____."

"It begins with the letter _____."

Take turns until you have used five different letters.

CLASS EXERCISE

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

How many letters are in the English alphabet?

HOMEWORK

Say the alphabet from A to Z without looking at your book.

Find five objects at home and say the letter each one begins with.

Practice reading today's words aloud with a family member.

Write the five vowels in your exercise book.

WEEK 3

VOWEL SOUNDS

What Are Vowels?

The English alphabet has five vowels.

They are:

A E I O U

Vowels can make short sounds and long sounds.

A short vowel sound is quick.

A long vowel sound says the name of the vowel.

Short and Long Vowel Sounds

Vowel	Short Sound	Example	Long Sound	Example
A	/a/	cat	/ā/	cake
E	/e/	egg	/ē/	tree
I	/i/	ink	/ī/	kite
O	/o/	pot	/ō/	rope
U	/u/	cup	/yoo/	cube

Fun Speech Game (Short or Long?)

The teacher says a word.

If it has a short vowel sound, clap once.

If it has a long vowel sound, raise both hands.

Examples:

Cat → clap once

Cake → raise hands

Pot → clap once

Rope → raise hands

Story Time

Kate and the Cake

Kate baked a delicious cake.

She sat under a tree.

She flew her kite in the park.

She used a rope to pull her toy.

Later, she played with a cube.

Kate smiled because she could hear the long vowel sounds in the words.

Role Play

Work with a partner.

One pupil says a short vowel word.

The other pupil says a long vowel word with the same vowel.

Example:

Cat → Cake

Pot → Rope

Cup → Cube

CLASS EXERCISE

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

Which word has a short A sound?

☐ Cake

☐ Cat

☐ Rain

Which word has a long I sound?

☐ Ink

☐ Kite

☐ Fish

Which word has a long O sound?

Fun Speech Game (Sound Basket)

The teacher says a consonant sound.

Children find or point to a classroom object that begins with that sound.

Example:

/b/ → Book

/d/ → Door

/p/ → Pencil

/k/ → Chair (listen for the /ch/ sound and discuss the difference)

Story Time

Ben's Busy Day

Ben packed his book and pencil.

He saw a bird on a branch.

His friend gave him a ball to play with.

Ben thanked his friend and spoke clearly all day.

Role Play

Work with a partner.

Choose a picture.

- 2.Say each object's name and clap the syllables.
- 3.Read today's words aloud with a family member.
- 4.Write five words with one syllable and five words with two or more syllables.

WEEK 6

WORD STRESS

What Is Word Stress?

Word stress means saying one syllable louder, longer, and more clearly than the others.

Every word with two or more syllables has a stressed syllable.

Examples

Word	Syllables	Stressed Syllable
Table	TA-ble	First
Pencil	PEN-cil	First
Tiger	TI-ger	First
Happy	HAP-py	First
Banana	ba-NA-na	Second
Potato	po-TA-to	Second
Tomato	to-MA-to	Second
Computer	com-PU-ter	Second

Remember: The stressed syllable is the strongest part of the word.

Fun Speech Game (Stress Detective)

The teacher says a word.

Children clap the syllables and point to the stressed syllable.

Examples:

Tiger → TI-ger

Banana → ba-NA-na

Computer → com-PU-ter

Story Time

Peter's Picnic

Peter packed a banana, a tomato, and a potato for a picnic.

He placed them on the table beside his computer.

His teacher smiled and said, "Well done! You stressed each word correctly."

Peter felt proud because his speech was clear and easy to understand.

Role Play

Work with a partner.

Take turns saying the words below.

Your partner listens and checks whether you stress the correct syllable.

Table Pencil Banana Tomato Computer

CLASS EXERCISE

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

Which word has stress on the first syllable?

☐ Banana ☐ Pencil ☐ Tomato

Which word has stress on the second syllable?

☐ Tiger ☐ Table ☐ Computer

Which word has stress on the second syllable?

☐ Potato ☐ Happy ☐ Tiger

Word stress makes our speech:

☐ Confusing ☐ Clearer ☐ Quieter

Which word has stress on the first syllable?

☐ Banana ☐ Table ☐ Tomato

B. Underline the Stressed Syllable.

Tiger Banana Table Computer Tomato Pencil

C. Read Aloud

Table Pencil Happy Banana Potato

HOMEWORK

1. Practice reading today's words with a family member.
2. Clap the syllables and stress the correct one.
3. Find five two-syllable words and five three-syllable words at home or in your surroundings.
4. Read your favourite story aloud, paying attention to clear pronunciation and word stress.

WEEK 7

READING WITH EXPRESSION

What Is Reading with Expression?

Reading with expression means reading the way people speak.

Your voice should match the meaning of the sentence.

Good readers:

- ✓ Speak clearly.
- ✓ Read at a steady pace.
- ✓ Change their voice when needed.
- ✓ Pause at punctuation marks.
- ✓ Read with confidence.

Punctuation and Your Voice

Punctuation Mark	Name	How to Read It	Example
.	Full stop	Stop and take a short breath.	I have a book.
?	Question mark	Raise your voice slightly at the end.	Where is your bag?
!	Exclamation mark	Show excitement or strong feeling.	Hooray!
,	Comma	Pause briefly.	I bought apples, oranges, and bananas.

Fun Speech Game (Emotion Reader)

The teacher writes a sentence on the board.

A pupil reads it using the correct expression.

Examples:

😊 I am excited!

😞 I lost my pencil.

😮 Look at that huge balloon!

❓ Who is knocking at the door?

The class guesses the emotion.

Story Time

The Lost Puppy

One morning, Tunde looked outside.

"Oh no!" he cried. "Where is my puppy?"

He searched in the garden.

He searched behind the tree.

Then he heard a bark.

"There you are!" he shouted happily.

Tunde hugged his puppy and smiled all the way home.

Read the story again. Remember to:

Pause at full stops.

Raise your voice for the question.

Show excitement at the exclamation.

Role Play

Work with a partner.

One pupil is looking for a lost toy.

The other pupil helps to find it.

Use clear speech and good expression.

CLASS EXERCISE

A. Tick (✓) the correct answer.

Which punctuation mark ends a question?

☐ . ☐ ? ☐ !

Which punctuation mark shows excitement?

☐ , ☐ ! ☐ ?

A full stop tells us to:

☐ Shout. ☐ Pause. ☐ Run.

Reading with expression helps people:

☐ Understand the story better. ☐ Become confused. ☐ Read more slowly.

Which sentence is a question?

☐ I have a bag. ☐ Where is my bag? ☐ My bag is blue.

B. Read with Expression.

Read these sentences aloud.

Good morning, everyone.

Where is my book?

Wow! That is amazing!

Thank you for your help.

Can we play together?

C. Write the Correct Punctuation Mark.

Good morning____

Where is my pencil____

Hooray____

I like reading books____

HOMEWORK

1. Read a short story aloud to a family member.
2. Pause correctly at punctuation marks.
3. Read one question and one exclamation sentence with the correct expression.
4. Practice speaking clearly in front of a mirror for five minutes.

3. Read today's story to a family member.
4. Use five-word family words in your own sentences.

WEEK 4

READING PRACTICE

Good Reading Habits

A good reader:

- ✓ Reads from left to right.
- ✓ Pronounces every word clearly.
- ✓ Pauses at commas (,) and full stops (.).
- ✓ Changes the voice when reading a question (?).
- ✓ Reads at a comfortable pace.
- ✓ Reads with confidence and expression.

Reading Passage

A Visit to the School Garden

On Monday morning, Mrs. Bello took her pupils to the school garden.

The garden was clean and beautiful.

The children saw colourful flowers, green plants, butterflies, and birds.

Amara picked up a watering can and watered the flowers.

The teacher smiled and said,

"Well done, everyone!"

The pupils were happy because they learned how to care for plants.

Fun Speech Game (Read and Act)

The teacher reads a sentence.

The pupils act it out.

Examples:

🌸 "Water the flowers."

📖 "Read your book."

👏 "Clap your hands."

😊 "Smile at your friend."

Then pupils take turns reading and acting.

Role Play

Work with a partner.

Practice this conversation.

Teacher: What did you learn today?

Pupil: I learned how to care for plants.

Teacher: Very good!

Pupil: Thank you, Teacher.

Speak clearly, confidently, and politely.

WEEK 8

MINIMAL PAIRS

What Are Minimal Pairs?

Minimal pairs are two words that differ by only one sound.

Listening carefully helps us hear the difference.

Examples

Word 1	Word 2
ship	sheep
sit	seat
pin	pen
hat	hut
fan	Van

Read these sentences.

The ship is on the sea.

The sheep is eating grass.

Please sit down.

I have a blue pen.

The fan is on.

Let's Read

Read these words aloud.

ship – sheep

sit – seat

pin – pen

hat – hut

fan – van bit – beat live – leave

pull – pool

Now read the sentences.

The ship is sailing on the sea.

The sheep is eating grass.

Please sit on the seat.

I have a red pen.

The boy is wearing a hat.

The hut is small.

The fan is moving.
